

A photograph of the Golden Temple (Harmandir Sahib) in Amritsar, India, during sunset. The temple's ornate architecture, featuring multiple domes and arches, is reflected in the calm water of the Sarovar. The sky is a vibrant orange and yellow, with the sun low on the horizon. The overall scene is peaceful and majestic.

INTER-FAITH SPEAKERS' SERIES

SIKHISM

GUEST SPEAKER :
MR HARBANS SINGH

PROFILE:

Mr Harbans Singh s/o Puran Singh, retired teacher, 84 is currently the Honorary Secretary of the Inter-Religious Organisation, Singapore (IRO) and regarded as one of the most qualified and experienced lecturers in Sikhism, having lectured in Australia and Singapore on several aspects of Sikhism. He strongly believes in the universal values of humility, loving kindness and charity as exemplified by the Sikh Gurus, and the importance of a Sikh carrying himself with humility, despite the greatness of one's achievement. He also tries to impart into the next generation of Sikhs high morals such as courage, filial piety, reverence for mothers and compassion for the less fortunate.
